

Hebei jishiyu Pump Co., Ltd. is the leading manufacturer and supplier of slurry pumps, desulfurization pumps, dredge pumps, multistage pumps, sewage pumps in China. The main product slurry pump is of 20 series, 80 varieties and more than 400 specifications. The products are widely used in metallurgy, mining, petrochemical, coal, electricity, building materials, municipal, environmental protection departments. Mainly used for transport of solid particles with a strong abrasive, high-concentration slurry. We have exported our products to Canada, Russia, Japan, Vietnam, India, Ethiopia, Malaysia, Singapore, Chile, Zambia, Bolivia and other countries and regions. Ensure the highest efficiency and lowest operation costs; we help our customers to maintain industry leading advantage.

We have pattern workshop, foundries, rubber plant, machining workshop, assembly workshop and testing station. With rich experience in production of high chrome wear resistant white iron material. From the vital casting process to machining and assembly, we insist strict process technology and continuous improvement to ensure the high quality products as customers expect.

Strictly follow and continuously improve & strengthen the ISO quality control, become our highest quality control guiding principle. Not only does JISHIYU PUMP offer pump products, we also provide pre-sales solution, on-site service, spares and after-sale support. With the goal and dedication of "integrity and trustworthiness, win-win cooperation", We provide customers with the highest quality products and best service, we warmly welcome all new and old customers visit our company!